Alaska Craft Championships

The Craft Championship is a half-day event dedicated to showcasing the best in skilled trades. Competitors demonstrate their expertise through hands-on challenges that mirror real-world job conditions, testing precision, safety, and efficiency.

Free and Open to the Public to attend!
This event is perfect for anyone interested in learning more about skilled trades and apprenticeship opportunities. Come see the action, meet industry professionals, and discover pathways to a rewarding career.