National Apprenticeship Week

We celebrate the value and impact of apprenticeship programs in developing a skilled workforce and creating rewarding career pathways. Join us in recognizing apprentices, mentors, and employers who are building the next generation of construction professionals. Stop by the ABC office for swag and treats, attend our After Hours networking event, and participate in a special panel discussion where industry professionals will share insights with local youth about rewarding careers in construction.